

PUBLIC CAUTIONARY NOTICE

VIATRIS/MYLAN IS A PHARMACEUTICAL AND HEALTHCARE COMPANY. IT DOES NOT OFFER ANY FINANCIAL SERVICES AND/OR PRODUCTS OF ANY KIND.

The general public is hereby cautioned that we have received reports of a fraudulent microloan application ('Mylan Loan' App) that is listed on App Store (the app marketplace developed and maintained by Apple Inc.) offering personal loans in real time for the Indian market. The developers of this app fraudulently claim that it has been developed by Mylan Pharmaceuticals Private Limited.

It is hereby informed that neither Mylan Pharmaceuticals Private Limited/Mylan Laboratories Limited (both companies incorporated in India) nor any other affiliate entities of Viatris Inc are in any way connected or involved with either this app or its developers in any manner whatsoever. No Viatris entity is engaged in offering any financial services and/products (including but not limited to personal loans, insurance, banking services, 'medical financial services', etc.).

If you are the target/victim of this fraudulent app or similar fraudulent apps that claim association with any Viatris entity, please contact the local law enforcement authorities for legal action on this count. Viatris at its own end has already filed complaints before the Cyber Cell Police Stations at Hyderabad and Bengaluru.

The public at large is advised not to take any decisions on transacting on any app offering financial products/services based on the credibility of Viatris/Mylan. We are in the process of taking appropriate legal action against these entities and individuals who are fraudulently linking their services and/or products to Viatris/Mylan. Any person transacting/dealing with such apps shall do so entirely at his/her discretion and risk.

Viатris/Mylan shall not be liable or responsible for any claim, damage, loss, consequences suffered by persons who deal with or transact in any manner using such applications.
