This Charter defines the duties and responsibilities of the Committee.

Purpose:

The Committee shall assist the Board in fulfilling its fiduciary responsibilities by advising the Board with respect to, and by discharging the duties and responsibilities delegated to it by the Board (including but not limited to those described in this Charter) in respect of, material financial matters and transactions of the Company, including, but not limited to, material mergers, acquisitions, and combinations with other companies; swaps and other derivatives transactions; the establishment of credit facilities; potential financings with commercial lenders; and the issuance and repurchase of the Company’s debt, equity, hybrid or other securities.

Any member of the Committee may resign at any time by delivering a letter of resignation to the Chairman of the Board, with a copy to the Lead Independent Director (if applicable), the Chair of the Committee, and the Secretary of the Company. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, or, if the time when it shall become effective shall not be specified therein, then it shall take effect immediately upon its receipt by the Chairman of the Board; unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Committee Resources:

The Committee shall have the authority to select, retain, and supervise any advisors as the Committee deems necessary, in its discretion, to fulfill its mandates under this Charter. The Committee shall also have the authority to compensate, at the expense of the Company, such advisors and employ such resources as are necessary to fulfill its mandates under this Charter. The Committee shall notify the Chairman of the Board and Lead Independent Director (if applicable) promptly upon the retention of any outside advisor.

- (h) Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of any Committee may be taken without a meeting if a majority of the members of the Committee consent thereto in writing or via electronic communications, provided that all Committee members are aware of the action to be taken in this manner and no Committee member objects to this manner of decision-making;
- (i) The Committee may, in its sole discretion, delegate any of its responsibilities to one or more subcommittees of one or more Directors; and
- (j) The Committee or its designee shall prepare minutes of each meeting and shall cause such minutes, as approved by the Committee, to be made available for review by any member of the Board.

Duties and Responsibilities:

The Committee shall, in addition to any other duties or responsibilities the Board may from time to time delegate to the Committee, have the following duties and responsibilities:

- (a) As requested by the Chairman or the Board, review, recommend, and/or oversee approved or potential material business transactions, including, but not limited to, material mergers, acquisitions, and combinations with other companies, sources of potential financing and the implementation of such financing, including but not limited to credit facilities and financing with commercial lenders, as well as any material amendments to agreements evidencing any such transactions or financings;
- (b) Approve the Company's issuance or repurchase of any of its debt, equity, hybrid, or other securities;
- (c) As requested by the Chairman or the Board, review strategies with respect to the capital structure of the Company and deployment of capital;

- (g) As requested by the Chairman or the Board, review any material security interests to be granted on the assets of the Company in support of debt of the Company or any of the Company's subsidiaries or in support of any derivative instruments entered into by the Company or any of the Company's subsidiaries;
- (h) Regularly report on its meetings, actions and recommendations to the Board or as otherwise requested by the Board; and

The Committee is also authorized to review and approve the entering by the Company into swaps and security-based swaps (each as defined in the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (the "Dodd-Frank Act") and rules and regulations thereunder) from time-to-time in reliance on the exception from the mandatory clearing and exchange trading provisions of the Dodd-Frank Act for "end-users" pursuant to Sections 723(a)(3)(h)(7)(A) and 763(a)(3C)(g)(1) of the Dodd-Frank Act. In exercising this authority, the Committee may approve the Company's use of swaps and security-based swaps on a general basis and does not need to make such approvals on a swap-by-swap basis.

Nothing in this Charter shall preclude (i) the Board from itself taking any action set forth herein or (ii) the Committee from delegating to any person or persons that it authorizes the power and authority to take appropriate further actions to effect the purposes and intent of any action authorized by the Committee consistent with its authority under this Charter.
